Annulment conditions Training and Education

Solarix considers only cancellations if the annulment is received in written form, email or fax stating the reason of cancellation.

The date of annulment Solarix uses is the date of receiving the letter, email or fax.

Your cancellation date is always related to the start date of the training for which you are originally registered.

Annulment at more than 30 days before the beginning of the education/training:

If the education/training is cancelled more than 30 days before the date of the education/training, Solarix will charge you € 100, - administration costs.

Any remains of your payment will be refunded.

Annulment until 14 days before the beginning of the education/training:

If the education/training is cancelled 14 days before the date of the education/training, Solarix, will charge you 50% of the total amount of the education/training costs.

Any remains of your payment will be refunded.

Annulment within 14 days before the beginning of the education/training:

If the education/training is cancelled within 14 days before the date of the education/training, no refunds are made.

After the beginning of the education/training you can not claim restitution of any portion of the amount due.

In consultation with Solarix it might be possible to replace your participation by another colleague of your company.
